Tongue Tied Translator

Pick out some of your favorite pick up lines, bedroom phrases, or nicknames you have for each other. Plug them into a free translator (like Google Translate) and see how to say them in several different languages!

A few of our favorites to try and translate phrases into:

Chinese Italian German Samoan

Czechoslovakian Finnish Mongolian

Spice It Up

After dinner, move this party to the bedroom. Have some fun creating and naming your own positions with different ideas from around the world. Translate your favorite positions into different languages and use those words for the rest of the night!

Need other bedroom game ideas? Check out the Play section in the Intimately Us app for lots of bedroom games to get/keep things spicy!

Time for Traditions

Look up traditions from different countries you are both interested in. Incorporate a few of them into your evening. Perhaps have them line up with the different parts of your meal. Try something new and have fun with it!

Pro tip:

Do you know your heritage? Learn more about where you came from! You will probably learn something new about your heritage and your spouses as well!
